process, whether incurred prior to or subsequent to issuance of the permit. This may include but is not limited to initial plan review fees (whether approved or not) processing fees, inspection fees, escrow accounts, re-inspections, road bonds, administrative fees, any legal, engineering or enforcement fees and any damages incurred.

Applicant will be invoiced as the inspection company BFCCS bill the Village. The invoice may apply to only Plan Review (whether approved or not) or may include the initial inspections, necessary interim inspections and administrative fees. All fees must be paid prior to the permit being sent to the contractor/owner and the permit being considered active.

Expenses incurred for additional inspections, or consultations with the building inspector before or after issuance of the permit or that are not otherwise included in the permit fee, will be invoiced to the owner/contractor as incurred, payable by check, cash or on-line by credit card.

After 30 days the invoice will be considered in default and sent to collections.
